Tivoli's 62 luxe rooms offer gamut of amenities

- From Seibert Suite to Village Standard, luxury appointments don't disappoint

VAIL, Colo. (Winter, 2007-08) –Tivoli Lodge at Vail, built on the site of the former 1960s landmark and completely redone from the ground up in 2006, now boasts 62 oversized and luxurious rooms in a premier Vail Village location - steps from Vail Mountain, yet far enough off the beaten path to afford peace and quiet.

The Tivoli's new rooms are loaded with amenities from leather furnishings to granite countertops to lofty ceilings to custom furniture and cabinets. Other touches include flat-screen televisions, DVD players, down pillows, luxury linens and Turkish bath towels and robes.

The following is a list and description of the seven different rooms types now offered at the magnificent new-look Tivoli:

Seibert Suite

Our suite features awe-inspiring, unobstructed, panoramic views of the Gore Range, Golden Peak, and Vail Mountain. In the octagonal living/kitchen area, guests will enjoy luxury touches such as a full-sized refrigerator and custom-blended coffee and tea service. In the separate bedroom a king-sized bed is draped with luxury linens, while the bathroom features a Swedish walk-in shower with body-spray jets, a separate soaking tub, and Turkish bath towels and robes. In our opinion we've created the finest hotel suite in all of Vail, but you be the judge.

About the Tivoli Lodge at Vail

The Tivoli Lodge at Vail, among Vail's first great European-style lodges in the 1960s, has been reinvented from the ground up as an ultra-modern model of boutique luxury but is still steeped in old-world charm and suffused with Tyrolean tradition, ambiance and hospitality. The Tivoli, featuring 62 oversized guest rooms, is located at 386 Hanson Ranch Rd. in Vail Village at the base of Vail Mountain. The Tivoli is replete with other amenities, including the Brown Hound Lounge, a meeting room, a library, a fully-equipped fitness room, two outdoor hot tubs, and underground parking and ski storage.
